

Malvern Crushes V. Forge

Mike Cappelletti, a 6-1 210-pound fullback, scored on runs of 45 and 12 yards to power Malvern Prep to a 36-7 non-league victory over visiting Valley Forge Military Academy Friday afternoon.

Cappelletti, who is a brother of Penn State star John, was an All-Interac League linebacker in 1971. The Friars, who were highly ranked in the pre-season polls, also got a fine effort from junior quarterback Joe Sheridan who scored on a 10-yard "keeper" and passed 15 yards to Sam Dolente for another six-pointer.

Malvern's fifth touchdown came on a 10-yard pass from Jay Calhoun too Rod Walsh while placekicker Paul McShone booted a 29-yard field goal and three extra points. The lone Valley Forge TD came on an 85-yard kickoff return by Tom Kennedy in the final period following Cappelletti's second touchdown.
