

Pennsbury Retains No. 1 Spot in Poll

It was a fairly formful week for The Inquirer's Top 20 teams. Only one—19th-ranked West Chester—lost and another—16th-ranked Woodrow Wilson—was tied.

No. 20 Coatesville beat West Chester, 29-26, and moved to 18th; Lenape tied Wilson, 14-14, dropping the Tigers out of the Top 20.

No. 1 Pennsbury smashed Allentown Dieruff, 50-6. No. 2 St. James had no trouble with Roman Catholic and No. 4 Monsignor Bonner won handily over Archbishop Carroll. Malvern Prep, No. 5, had one of its toughest games of the year but escaped with a victory over Germantown Academy.

The big test this week is for No. 6 Abington, which faces 10th-ranked Plymouth-Whitemarsh.

- |                        |       |                     |       |
|------------------------|-------|---------------------|-------|
| 1. Pennsbury           | (5-0) | 11. Neshaminy       | (5-1) |
| 2. St. James           | (5-0) | 12. Northeast       | (1-0) |
| 3. Upper Merion        | (4-0) | 13. Frankford       | (1-0) |
| 4. Monsignor Bonner    | (4-0) | 14. Archbishop Wood | (5-0) |
| 5. Malvern Prep        | (5-0) | 15. La Salle        | (4-1) |
| 6. Abington            | (6-0) | 16. Delsea          | (4-0) |
| 7. Central Bucks West  | (5-0) | 17. Bishop Kenrick  | (5-1) |
| 8. Holy Spirit         | (4-0) | 18. Coatesville     | (4-1) |
| 9. West Catholic       | (3-1) | 19. Rancocas Valley | (4-0) |
| 10. Plym'th-Whitemarsh | (6-0) | 20. West Chester    | (4-1) |

Others in order: Woodrow Wilson, Marple-Newtown, Springfield (D), Woodbury, Lansdowne-Aldan, Palmyra, Archbishop Kennedy, Lincoln, Bishop Eustace, Collingswood, Penridge, Pennsauken, Springfield (M), Pennsville.

1970 Team rank game 5

Clipped By:

Rcarey5171
Sun, Jan 3, 2021