

A Re-run for Malvern?

If there are any re-runs this winter, it just might be at Malvern Prep where Jack (Shark) McGuinn's Friars figure to repeat as champions of the Interacademic League.

Okay, so Malvern Prep did lose some good ones to graduation, blue-chippers like guard Pat Sheridan and tackles Herb Beck and Dan Riordan.

And it won't be an easy job replacing end Sam Dolente or linebackers Mark Kolmer and Bill Corbett, either.

McGuinn, nevertheless, just may duplicate last season's 10-0 season with such returnees as center Mike Ameche, guard Ronzone and running backs Steve Donnelly and Jim Della Franco.

Interac

Two teams that could overtake McGuinn, however, are Penn Charter and the Haverford School.

Both schools had two losses last year and are stronger and more experienced this season.

1975 Inquirer Inter-Ac preseason prediction

Clipped By:

wmills9354

Sun, Aug 14, 2022