

Malvern upends Spartans

MALVERN, Pa. — Jim Marino ran for two second quarter touchdowns and David Orr took a kickoff return 95 yards for a score with four minutes to play as Malvern Prep defeated St. Mark's 36-20 yesterday in a nonconference football game.

The Spartans, 2-3, had taken a 14-0 lead after one quarter before Malvern erupted for three second quarter touchdowns and a 20-14 halftime advantage. Quarterback Bob McEvoy threw a 35-yard scoring pass to Mike Burke, and Marino scored twice on one yard runs.
