

7. The Green Raiders, winners of 26 consecutive Central League games, have yielded only 3.8 points per contest. The Lions are led by red-hot quarterback Matt Atkinson, who threw for 212 yards and three touchdowns in last week's 38-12 romp over Lower Merion.

Pick: Ridley, 26-14.

Upper Merion (4-2, 2-1) at Norristown (4-2, 2-1), tonight, 7. The Vikings need to get back on track after an embarrassing, 35-14 loss to Upper Merion last week. The Eagles, newcomers to the Suburban One American Conference, are sparked by running back Sheldon Mayer and quarterback James Ramsey.

Pick: Norristown, 27-21.

Episcopal Academy (5-0, 0-0) at No. 2 Malvern Prep (4-0, 0-0), tomorrow, 2. The high-flying Churchmen have a chance to make a big statement against The Inquirer's No. 2 team in Southeastern Pennsylvania. It won't be easy. The run-savvy and experienced Friars have outscored foes by 165-36.

Pick: Malvern, 35-13.

Other games to watch

■ Quakertown (5-1, 1-1) at No. 1 North Penn (6-0, 3-0), tonight, 7. Pick: North Penn, 35-7.

■ Bensalem (3-3, 2-1) at Pennsbury (5-1, 3-0), tonight, 7. Pick: Pennsbury, 20-12.

■ Wissahickon (3-3, 0-2) at Upper Moreland (5-1, 2-1), tonight, 7. Pick: Upper Moreland, 29-13.

■ Council Rock South (4-2, 1-2) at No. 10 Neshaminy (5-1, 3-0), tomorrow, 2. Pick: Neshaminy, 34-14.

■ No. 9 W.C. Henderson (5-1, 3-0) at Bayard Rustin (5-1, 2-0), tomorrow, 7. Pick: Henderson, 26-7.

■ Conwell-Egan (4-2, 2-0) vs. Archbishop Wood (3-2, 1-0), at Wissahickon, tomorrow, 7. Pick: Wood, 24-19.

Contact staff writer Rick O'Brien at 610-313-8019 or robrien@phillynews.com.

2008 EA prediction

Clipped By:

Rcarey5171
Thu, Feb 18, 2021