Team	Record
Last week's rankings are in parentheses.
1. North Penn (1) The Knights, seeded No. 1 in PIAA District 1 Class AAAA, will take on conference rival Souderton in the first round.	10-0
2. Malvern Prep (2) The Friars average 46.5 points per game. A win Saturday over Chestnut Hill Academy would clinch the Inter-Ac League title.	8-0
3. Garnet Valley (3) Tim Keyser (980 rushing yards, 16 touchdowns) and the Jaguars dethroned two-time defending Central League champion Ridley.	10-0
4. St. Joseph's Prep (4) The Hawks open the Catholic League Division AAAA playoffs against La Salle. The Explorers won in the regular season, 31-17.	8-2
5. West Catholic (6) Next for the high-octane Burrs, averaging an eye-popping 59 points the last five games, is Bok in the Dist. 12 AA final.	9-1
6. Neshaminy (7) After bagging the Suburban One League National Conference crown, the Redskins take aim at their first district title since 2004.	9-1
7. La Salle (6) Can the Explorers beat the Prep a second time? A lot hinges on the play of QB Drew Loughery and RB Jamal Abdur-Rahman.	7-2
8. Father Judge (9) Diminutive tailback Curtis Wortham, a 5-foot-5, 155-pound junior, has been a big boost. He has rushed for 1,100 yards.	7-3
9. Downingtown West (NR) The Whippets will host a familiar foe, Ches-Mont League National Division rival Coatesville, in the district opener.	9-1
10. Pennsbury (8) The Falcons' wing-T attack is sparked by halfback Dante Devine, fullback Richie Applegate and quarterback Brandon Peppper.	8-2
Under consideration (listed alphabetically): Abington (8-2), Glen Mills (8-2), Pottsgrove (9-1), Ridley (8-2), Upper Dublin (8-1), Upper Moreland (8-1).
