

The Inquirer TOP 10

SOUTHEASTERN PENNSYLVANIA TEAM OF THE DECADE

Team, season	Record
1. North Penn, 2003 The Kevin Akins-led Knights averaged 39.6 points per game en route to their first state crown.	15-0
2. Central Bucks West, 2000 The Bucks reached Hershey before losing to Erie Cathedral Prep, 41-35, in overtime.	14-1
3. St. Joseph's Prep, 2003 Matt Parkhurst, Brian Tracz, and Greg Ambrogi were among the defensive leaders.	12-0
4. Neshaminy, 2001 Jamar Brittingham carried 364 times for 2,585 yards and 30 touchdowns.	15-0
5. Strath Haven, 2000 John Mulhern, a 6-foot-1, 210-pound lineman, was one of the area's surest tacklers.	15-0
6. Malvern Prep, 2008 Longtime boss Gaspare "Gamp" Pellegrini called this his best-ever team.	10-0
7. St. Joseph's Prep, 2005 When healthy, these Hawks were a bit better than the 13-0 squad of 2002.	10-2
8. Ridley, 2007 The Green Raiders, led by RB-LB Andrew Hodges, advanced to the state semifinals	13-2
9. Pennsbury, 2006 Jackson Fagan sparked the offense. C.J. Marck was a stalwart on defense.	13-2
10. North Penn, 2005 The rugged and bruising Knights averaged nearly 250 rushing yards per game.	12-2

— Rick O'Brien

2008 SEPA ranking Teams of the decade

Clipped By:

Rcarey5171
Fri, Feb 19, 2021